Former member and wife are subjects of sensitive article on care-giving

By George Burke, Suncoast Camera Club

The Life-Times section of the St. Petersburg Times (July 27, 2011), has a full page article on page 3 about Frank and Carolyn Kaiser's medical condition. Until he got ill several years ago, Frank was an active member of the SCC.

The article was written by their son, John, who left his wife and three children in Milwaukee and spent most of the last year taking care of them in Florida. He explains what has happened and asks for "caregiving suggestions" from the newspaper's readers.

Here is a link to the article: <http://www.tampabay.com/news/aging/lifetimes/caregiving-hits-home-will-you-share-your-advice/1182667>. Just copy and paste the link into your browser rather than typing it all in.

A lot of SCC members remember Frank, a wonderful photographer and club member who dropped out of the club when his wife Carolyn developed a very rare and serious form of cancer several years ago. Shortly thereafter, Frank came down with a serious case of a different form of cancer. Both their medical conditions have been steadily deteriorating over time, although they seem to have stabilized now. Neither of them can drive any longer.

Frank and I are good friends. I was the one who got him to join the SCC. He was quite active for several years before they both got too ill for him to continue. I see them occasionally to chat and help them with computer problems.

It is a tragic situation and I hope SCC club members will remember Frank and Carolyn in their prayers.

Dunedin Blue Jays baseball shoot

Don't forget the photo shoot at the Dunedin Blue Jays game (Florida Auto Exchange Stadium, 373 Douglas Avenue, Dunedin), Tuesday, Aug. 9, at 7 p.m. The shoot is open to all members willing to pay the $6 stadium ticket fee (and share a few photos with the team for their use). Only 12 or so members will be able to access the dugout photo area at one time, so we may have to rotate in and out of the area. E-mail Jim Goins at jim@jimgoinsphotography.com.
