New members are invited to learn about PSA

The Photographic Society of America (PSA) is the largest organization for amateur photographers and photography in the U.S. and is a worldwide, interactive organization for all serious amateur and professional photographers or for anyone who loves photography.

Several new PSA individual member discounts and exclusive services are available to PSA members.

Founded in 1934, PSA has members in over 70 countries. Individual, Club, and Council memberships offer a wide variety of services and activities: a monthly magazine; online photo galleries, image evaluation, study groups, and courses; competitions; an annual conference; recognition; and discounts on photography related products and services.

PSA invites Suncoast Camera Club members and friends, to visit the PSA web site at www.psa-photo.org to view the Gallery of Distinction Awards and for more information about PSA, its activities and benefits.

Items of special interest from the club Web site

Sign up soon. The only opening left at this time is for Clearwater Beach. Go to <http://worldwidephotowalk.com/locations/?q=tampa+fl> for more information.

◆ Professional Photographers Research and Conference—Cuba, Nov. 11-18. Liz Rylan, Ph.D and professional photographer, invites all professional photographers, photojournalists, nature and wildlife photographers, portrait and wedding photographers to Cuba under general license as authorized by the Office of Foreign Asset Control (515.566). The visit includes a full-time schedule of research consistent with U.S. foreign policy. Some of our highlights will include conferences and private visits to the studios of Cuban photographers, experimental workshops, and meetings with prestigious photography institutes, students and professors.

Contact Liz at 727-771-7081 or evrylan1@aol.com.
